

Preventing and Tackling Bullying in Schools and Children's Services

1 Policy

- 1.1 This policy has been produced by Hesley Group to help our staff recognise, prevent and respond to bullying in our services for children and young people. It is also designed to help us understand our legal responsibilities. Please note that this policy refers to children and young people using Hesley Group services. Bullying relating to adults will be dealt with using Hesley Group Safeguarding Adults policy and guidance, Res 2.1A.
- 1.2 This policy, guidance and procedures takes account of information provided by the Department for Education "Prevention and Tackling of Bullying; Advice for Headteachers, Staff and Governing Bodies.":
<https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/preventing-and-tackling-bullying>
4 July 2017.
Please note this Guidance has replaced the previous advice "Prevention and Tackling of Bullying", October 2014.
- 1.3 The policy has close links with the Hesley Group Single Equality Scheme, Corp 9.1, and Hesley Group Safeguarding Children Policy, Res 2.1B.

2 Agreed Outcome

Children and young people using Hesley Group services will be protected from bullying because our staff are alert and respond appropriately to bullying behaviour.

3 Why we need a policy

- Staff must be fully aware of their responsibilities and how to follow best practice to prevent and manage bullying behaviour.
- Bullying must be effectively dealt with by competent staff.
- Children and young people's rights must be protected as outlined in the Equality Act 2010.
- Parents and carers must be confident children are protected from bullying behaviour.

Policy No: ReS 2.10

- We must ensure that children and young people are safeguarded from the risk of significant harm as a result of bullying behaviour.
- We must comply with the law. The main laws that relate to this are the Children Act 1989, The Education (Independent Schools Standards) Regulations 2014 and the Equality Act 2010.
